Prop and Wardrobe Division

We are delighted to introduce you to a novel concept that will undoubtedly revolutionize your production experience – the Prop and Wardrobe Division of our esteemed Heart Beat Studios. A venture that serves as your unparalleled one-stop destination, catering to the discerning tastes of visionaries like you.

Heart Beat Studios

In recognizing the inherent synergy between captivating motifs, exquisite art pieces, tasteful furniture, and the clothing that graces your productions, we have meticulously curated a unique display room that transcends mere props. Our collection comprises truly rare artistic discoveries, each laden with narratives that seamlessly intertwine with your creative process. The result? An amplified resonance of your brand, promotional campaigns, and the very essence of your creative production shoots.

Heart Beat Studios

Our hallmark offering lies not only in the selection of distinctive items but in the expansive potential they hold. Collaborating with our Prop and Wardrobe Division grants you direct access to an exclusive roster of antique dealers based in Los Angeles, California. These seasoned professionals are committed to furnishing you with items available for rent or purchase – tailored to the nuances of your production requirements.

Heart Beat Studios

Moreover, our distinguished team of highly experienced fashion designers, stylists, buyers, and creative consultants stand ready to offer their expertise. Through meticulously crafted consultations, we empower your in-house production teams to harness their messaging to its utmost potential. This partnership, fortified by our shared commitment to excellence, ensures that your productions resonate on a level that is both profound and compelling.
